To Louis Morrison, as William H.

Morrison's presentation of the part

That he labored under a serious hand-

PERELSTROUS MAY BE BLOWN UPRussians Threaten Old Country Bomb
Tricks

Chief McDuffie is keeping a close lookout on the Perelstros home on Young street and Elsie lane, and one Russian, who is said to be on the inner side of things, is keeping the detective force in touch with any plans to use bombs.

Mrs. Perelstros was warned yesterday by two Russians that her life was in danger, as some of the immigrants had threatened to dynamite the Perel-stros house.

A special interpreter is expected to reach the police station soon, and the story of a Russian who will not speak to any other interpreter will be listened to. It is thought that startling revelations will be made when the spy meets the interpreter, to whom he will divulge everything.

The chief of detectives is keenly on the alert, and is taking no chances in the matter. The suggestion that the remarks made to Mrs.
Perelstros were more of a threat than a warning is not favored by McDuffie, who believes that there is bitter hatred existing on the part of the Russians toward Perelstros.

Yesterday at noon a Russian who swam across to Quarantine Island was arrested, but not before he had been some hours in contact with the lately-arrived immigrants. It is thought that he has informed the immigrants of the state of affairs as regards the old Russians, and that the new ones will cause trouble.

NEGRO APPOINTED TO CUBAN CABINET

HAVANA, Apr. 16.—A further shake-up in the Cuban Cabinet is foreshadowed today as the result of President Gomez's selection of Mo-rua Delgado as Minister of Agriculture and Emilio Del Junco as Minister of Justice.

Secretary of State San Jullia is not on friendly terms with either of the new appointees, and it is believed he will resign within a few days and that other members of the old Cabinet will also quit.

A third new Cabinet minister is Mario Garcia Kony, Minister of Instruction. Today's appointments follow the resignations of the former incumbents. The President also has the resignation of the Minister of the Interior, but has not yet accepted it. The resignations were offered to permit Gomez to pay off some of his political debts.

THOUSANDS GREET
PORTUGAL'S CRUISER

The San Gabriel sailed from her home port at Lisbon on December 11.
Since that time and up to her arrival at San Francisco the cruiser has visited eighteen ports. The seventeen naval cadets on board the vessel will have an abundant opportunity to complete their training by the time the vessel again returns to Lisbon. She is expected to have finished the round-the-world cruise by the latter part of March or the first of April.

Upon the walls of the officers' mess room is an exhibit which is a study in itself. Displayed there is a collection of views, which have been gathered by the officers at each port of call on the cruise. Starting from Lisbon, there will be found striking photographic reproductions of the interesting points at Porto Santo, Madeira, Cape Verde, Vicente Colos, Fraa, Bahai, Rio Janeiro, Santos, Montevideo, Buenos Ayres, Puerto Arenas, Valparaiso, Callao, Panama, Salina Cruz, Acapulco and San Francisco. The officers declare that they have greatly enjoyed the cruise thus far to the Far East. They report having been given a grand reception at Rio Janeiro and Buenos Ayres. On the walls of their staterooms are displayed the charming likenesses of many beautiful sensations.

San Francisco Hospitality.
When the vessel steamed inside the Golden Gate and approached San Francisco, the officers and men claim that from that time there was something doing about every minute. The Portuguese colony at the California port simply vied with each other in carrying out a program of entertainment which thus far has not been eclipsed.

Before leaving San Francisco after a ten days' stay there, the San Gabriel officers and men were presented with a large floral design in the form of a very correct reproduction of their ship.
This tribute is now treasured as one of the happy souvenirs of the cruise.

The design is composed of flowers and colored papers woven into festoons and garlands. It presents a cheering picture in hedges of old armory where it has been placed.

While the San Gabriel may be classed as one of the smaller vessels of the Portuguese navy, nevertheless the little craft has much laid out before it in completing the cruise to the Far East and thence home again.

Honolulu Reception Parties.
Officers as well as men are on the qui vive of expectancy over their ten days' stay at Honolulu. The cruiser was boarded off Diamond Head this morning by Dr. Luis Rodriguez Gaspar and a representative of the Evening prepared the San Gabriel complement of officers and men concerning what was in store for them by their countrymen of Honolulu.

The vessel will remain here until May 29. This detention is made for the reason that the cruiser has been ordered to be here during the funeral services of the late King Edward of Great Britain. The cruiser will proceed to Hilo from here and it is the present intention for the vessel to remain in Hawaiian waters for a total period of twenty days. The San Gabriel may also call at one or two ports on Kauai and Maui before leaving the islands.

The cruise is scheduled to take fourteen months to complete and during this period the vessel is scheduled to call at a wide variety of ports throughout the East.

The World Cruise.
The San Gabriel has been ordered to proceed to Yokohama upon leaving Hawaii and, from there she will steam down to Kobe, thence Nagasaki, Shanghai, Hongkong, Manila, where an extended stay will be made at the Portuguese naval base of the Far East.

The cruise will then be continued and calls at Timor, Sourabaya, Batavia, Singapore, Ceylon, Bombay, Zanzibar, Mosambique, Delagoa Bay, Natal, Durban, Port Elizabeth, Walvis Bay, Lobito and a number of South African ports, then on to Cape Verde, Madeira, and finally concluding the voyage by arrival at Lisbon in March or April of next year.

The following officers are found on board the vessel: Capitao de fragata—Antonio Aluizio Jervis d'Albuquerque Ferreira Pinto Bosto.

Capitao-tenente Benjamin de Palva Corado.
10 tenentes Antonio Gomes Branco Martins.

20s tenentes—Jose Luiz Teixeira Marinho, Fernando de Vasconcellos e Sa Ferreira, Jose de Meireles Garri-do, Annibal de Mesquita Guimaraes.

Machinista Naval de Talasae, Antonio Yamaro da Silva, Machinista de 2a classe, Gomes, Martins, Fernan-des, machinista conductor Pires, Medico Naval de 1a classe, Leble Commissario naval Vasconcellos.

The cruiser upon arrival first saluted the land, then Rear-Admiral Rees and the consul-general of Portugal.

At the orders received by cable, the ship went into mourning upon receipt of the news of the death of King Edward, and will remain so for the next three days. The commanding officer of the San Gabriel was an aide-de-camp of the late King Carlos, and in that capacity became personally acquainted with the deceased King of England.

WATERFRONT NOTES

THE BRITISH steamer Persia, formerly the well known trans-Pacific liner Coptic, plying between this city and the Orient, is to arrive here about May 7. For many months past the Persia has been under charter by the Pacific Mail Company to a Chinese company, covering a route connecting Hongkong and Japanese ports with Mexico and Central and South America. It is stated that the Persia is to be put in here for inspection and to replenish her coal bunkers. Captain A.
Lockett, formerly of the Algos, commands the Persia. After the acquisition of the Coptic and the Doric from the Occidental and Oriental Steamship Company a few years ago, by the Pacific Mail, the names were changed to Persia and Asia, and for a long time the Persia lay at Hongkong, in
